MANDATORY VOLUNTEER SAFETY TRAINING - 2019

INFECTION CONTROL and STANDARD PRECAUTIONS
1. Touching an infected door knob with a bare hand is an example of how pathogens spread through indirect contact.
   True [ ]    False [ ]

2. HIV is an example of a Blood Borne Pathogen.
   True [ ]    False [ ]

3. Wearing gloves and properly washing your hands are Standard Precautions that should be taken only with sick or known infected patients.
   True [ ]    False [ ]

4. Having close contact with someone who has had infectious TB disease since your last TB test is considered a risk indicator.
   True [ ]    False [ ]

5. Once pathogens are within a new host, their infectious cycle starts all over again.
   True [ ]    False [ ]

FIRE SAFETY and EMERGENCY PREPARDNESS
1. A code Elopement means you should evacuate the building immediately.
   True [ ]    False [ ]

2. Dr. Wolfe code means there is an active shooter in the building.
   True [ ]    False [ ]

3. Tornado warning means you should sit bedside with your patient and watch the weather channel for updates.
   True [ ]    False [ ]

4. There are three evacuation meeting areas on Angela Hospice grounds.
   True [ ]    False [ ]

Please fill in the following Fire Safety Responses:

R - ________________
P - ________________
A - ________________
A - ________________
C - ________________
S - ________________
E - ________________ or ________________
S - ________________
PATIENT CARE, CONFIDENTIALITY, PATIENT RIGHTS

5. HIPPA was developed to protect patient health information.
   True □   False □

6. It is permissible to share information about your patient as long as you do not use a last name.
   True □   False □

7. You should give my cell phone number to your patients so they can contact you when needed.
   True □   False □

8. Patient Rights are only given to those patients who request them.
   True □   False □

9. Volunteer documentation becomes a permanent part of the patient record and can be viewed by patients and family members.
   True □   False □

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE and ELDER ABUSE

1. It is permissible to let persons in through the employee entrance if they forgot their badge.
   True □   False □

2. Workplace violence does not always entail physical abuse.
   True □   False □

3. It is not necessary to report threatening behavior to AH staff.
   True □   False □

4. Financial abuse is a form of Elder Abuse.
   True □   False □

5. I should report any suspicion of Elder Abuse to family members.
   True □   False □

Please PRINT name ____________________________________________

Signature ___________________________________________ Date __________